CENTER FOR LATIN AMERICAN & LATINO STUDIES

Foundations, we continue our efforts to shed light on corruption efforts in Central America, and State Department funding has facilitated research on transnational criminal networks in Brazil and the Southern Cone, the latter in collaboration with institutions in Brazil and Argentina. Professors Matt Taylor and Chuck, of the School of International Service, have been central to these inquiries, which have also involved several CLALS Fellows. Meanwhile, our partnership with UNICEF has flourished, with our providing orientation programs over the past year for newly appointed senior staff stationed in Chile, Uruguay, Honduras, Jamaica, Haiti,
